

I think that RM-10867 is what we must do to move Amateur Radio into the future. Without the change, Amateur Radio is in danger of fading away. But I feel that once it is in place, it must remain without further constant changes.